ASF UNITED

WHO WE ARE

Atlantic Soccer Factory is a club neutral next generation soccer education and training company. Our innovative approach is dedicated to assist you in developing your clubs teams and their players, remaining consistent with ASF founder Matt Driver's philosophy of player development, and challenging the player to meet the appropriate demands of the game. As a brand ASF is new, but possess highly credentialed, experienced professional coaching staff who are dedicated to building champions as individuals both on and off the field.

WHAT WE DO

ASF applies a constant approach to training and playing in a creative and competitive environment, created by professional coaches in a professional setting. We offer a wide range of services that add to our already highly professional program: 10 weeks of high level training, 3 competitive tournaments, 3 Position Specific Training Weekends, a 2 day Mini-Camp, Xcelerate Program (Speed and Agility specialist) every training session, Goalkeeping coach every training session, and we are club neutral program we want to help make the players better for when they go back to play with their club teams.

HOW WE DO IT

Matt Driver, Wayne Grocott, and Seamus O'Connor have been involved in youth soccer for many years in the USA and know the most effective way to get the best out of each and every player. From their experiences they are able to add vast amounts of knowledge to the already highly skilled coaches that are currently employed by ASF.

WHERE WE DO IT

All practices are held at a first class facility at St. Augustine Prep in Richland, NJ. St. Augustine Prep has a state of the art turf field where all practices, position specific training, and the mini camps will take place. We are currently solidifying our spots in tournaments in the NJ, NY, PA, and MD areas. All tournaments we will participate in will challenge all players to compete at the highest level and use the training that each coach has provided to succeed and develop in each game.
